

The Knowledge Bank at The Ohio State University

Ohio State Engineer

Title: "Fish Eye" Camera

Issue Date: 1943-05

Publisher: Ohio State University, College of Engineering

Citation: Ohio State Engineer, vol. 26, no. 6 (May, 1943), 18.

URI: <http://hdl.handle.net/1811/35958>

---

"FISH EYE" CAMERA

A "fish eye" camera which shows everything in a room above its level has been perfected in General Electric's laboratories. By means of this camera and a special convex mirror, the intensity and quality of light at any particular spot in a room can be determined. The mirror reflects light in such a way that the photograph will show light and dark areas in proportion to the actual amount of light present from each source.

---